Discover: Lectio Divina

Lectio Divina means “divine reading” and is a prayerful practice of reading the Bible.

1. Choose a short passage from the Bible, just a few verses.
2. Lectio (READ): Read the passage slowly and prayerfully. As you read, take in the words and the overall flow of the passage.
3. Meditatio (REFLECT): On the second prayerful reading of the passage, listen for a particular word or a phrase that grabs your attention (or if this doesn't happen, just choose a word). Silently reflect for a few minutes on why God would highlight this for you today. Ask God any questions that come to mind, and note things that seem important.
4. Oratio (RESPOND): On the third prayerful reading of the passage, listen now for God's invitation, and respond from your heart. The Living God is always inviting us to take action. It might be to let go of something, or to take up something. Following the reading, continue to listen for the invitation and then respond silently or out loud from an honest heart.
5. Contemplatio (REST): The focus of the fourth prayerful reading of the passage is to simply rest now in the love that God has for you. There is no further need to reflect or respond. Allow God's Spirit to draw you close and fill you with love, grace and peace. Linger in this place of deep connection, for you are being filled and refreshed for your continuing journey.

For anyone interested in becoming a Lector, please attend training on June 13th from 11:30-1:30 in the Br Juniper Room. All persons currently in this ministry are invited to come and hear a short talk on the prophets, listen to the Word, meet fellow Lectors, and hone their speaking skills. There will be time to practice speaking in the church. For information, please call Pequitte at 703-590-8492 or email at wislady@comcast.net.

The Rosary Guild meets the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month. Please join us Tuesday, June 9th from 7:00-9:00 p.m. in the St. Catherine Room. All are welcome. For more information, please call 703-221-2517.

Due to a high volume of calls, an additional phone line/number has been added at the church. If the main 703-221-4044 line is busy, please call 703-221-3127.

Franciscan Action and Advocacy (FA&A)

Please save the date! July 9th-10th at The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.: Answering Pope Francis's Call: An American Catholic Response to Modern-Day Slavery. Hosted by The Catholic University of America, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Catholic Charities, U.S.A., and Catholic Charities, Washington, D.C., this two-day conference serves to answer Pope Francis's call for members of the Catholic faith around the world to fight against human trafficking. By bringing together clergy, Catholic Charities staff, religious members, and lay parishioners, this conference hopes to generate a cohesive response to human trafficking within the United States. Participants will engage in discussions about general trends in domestic human trafficking, best practices in working with task forces and service providers, root causes of human trafficking, and advocacy around state and federal policy. This conference aims to generate a deeper discussion of the approach to combat human trafficking within the Catholic community and provide a forum for continuing collaboration into the future. (What's more, our parish is honored to have been invited to speak on a panel!) Please contact Rob for more information.

Boletín Semanal

Bible Basics

The Bible is the most important book any Catholic can own. What other book can bring us the word of God? With 73 books and more than 1600 pages, many Catholics find the Bible overwhelming, confusing, and even boring. Does this sound like you? Don't be afraid, you're not alone! Many people struggle to read the Bible because they have never been taught how to read it.

Join Br. Casey for an interesting and engaging look at the history, literature, theology, and social aspects of the whole Bible. Br. Casey will use videos, pictures, activities, and even humor to give every parishioner, young and old, the confidence to read the Bible on a regular basis. Classes will meet on Wednesday nights at 7:30pm in the St. Catherine Room, beginning on June 3rd and running through July 15th.

Catholic Boot Camp

What does it mean to be Catholic? What is in the Bible? Who wrote it? When was it written? How did the Church form through key, historical time periods? What is behind what we believe as Catholic Christians?

Br. Casey will be addressing these topics and more on Sunday afternoons at 3:30pm in the St. Catherine Room, beginning on June 7th and running through July 19th.

A Novena of Masses will be offered for all Fathers, living and deceased, and will begin on June 21st.

Spiritual Bouquet Cards are available on the tables in the vestibule. Please drop the inside envelope in the catch-all slot in the vestibule or in the parish office no later than 12 noon on Thursday, June 18th.

Are You New to the Parish??? Welcome!! Registration forms are available on the tables in the vestibule, from the parish office or from the parish website www.stfrancis.org.

If you are moving/changing your address, please notify the office so we can keep our records up-to-date. If you are changing your phone number because you are using a cellular phone and/or forgoing your land phone, the office would also like that information. Please call us at 703-221-4044. Thank you.
