

From the Pastor's Desk

them, none of them would have expected his life to change so quickly and completely. The disciples could not have fully understood what they were getting into when they responded to Jesus's call. Whatever expectations or doubts, whatever curiosity, excitement, or uncertainty they felt, nothing could have prepared them for what lay ahead. Everything about Jesus—His teaching, compassion, and wisdom; His life, death, and resurrection; His power, authority, and calling—would shape every aspect of the rest of their lives. In only a few years, these simple men would be brought before some of the most powerful rulers on earth and be accused of “turning the world upside down” (Acts 17:6). What began as simple obedience to the call of Jesus ended up changing their lives, and ultimately, the world.

What Is a Disciple? What does it mean to be a Disciple of Jesus Christ?

The answer is fairly simple, but it changes your life completely. The word disciple refers to a student or apprentice. Disciples in Jesus's day would follow their rabbi (which means teacher) wherever he went, learning from the rabbi's teaching and being trained to do as the rabbi did. Basically, a disciple is a follower, but only if we take the term follower literally. Becoming a disciple of Jesus is as simple as obeying His call to follow. When Jesus called His first disciples, they may not have understood where Jesus would take them or the impact it would have on their lives, but they knew what it meant to follow. They took Jesus's call literally and began going everywhere He went and doing everything He did. It's impossible to be a disciple or a follower of someone and not end up like that person. Jesus said, “A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher” (Luke 6:40). That's the whole point of being a disciple of Jesus: we imitate Him, carry on His ministry, and become like Him in the process.

Yet somehow for many people they have come to believe that they can be a “Christian” without being like Christ—a “follower” who doesn't follow. How does that make any sense? Many people in the church have decided to take on the name of Christ and nothing else. This would be like Jesus walking up to those first disciples and saying, “Hey, would you guys mind identifying yourselves with Me in some way? Don't worry, I don't actually care if you do anything I do or change your lifestyle at all. I'm just looking for people who are willing to say they believe in Me and call themselves Christians.” Seriously? No one can really believe that this is all it means to be a Christian or a Disciple of Christ. But then why do so many people live this way? It appears that we've lost sight of what it means to be a Disciple of Jesus. The concept of being a disciple isn't difficult to understand, but it affects everything in our lives and how we live our lives. To answer the call to be a Disciple of Christ will impact your life. Are you willing to say Yes? If so next week I will reflect on how to become a Disciple.

A New Author in the Parish

What if I told you that superheroes were real? Would you believe me? To the logical world, it would seem insane. They are just stories, after all. But every story comes from somewhere; every tale has a beginning. With great power comes great responsibility. At least, that is what the stories tell us. I wish I could say I believed them.

John Paul senior and St. Francis alumni Jessica Sydow, is very happy to announce the publication of her novel, Gifted. It is a four-part, Young Adult fiction novel packed full of suspense, adventure, and self-discovery. Jessica started writing it during her sophomore year, but the characters have existed since seventh grade, when she created the first drawings of them. Since then, both the art and story have developed into something amazing that she wants to share with the world.

Gifted is available for purchase from Amazon (search "Jessica Sydow").
