From the Friars

The issue of immigration affects all of us, and it is important that we respond to it not only as Americans but as Catholics. Being properly informed is crucial to an authentically Catholic response. Unfortunately there has been too much misinformation as regards the immigration issue. Therefore, over the next eight weeks, we will present a series on the teaching of the Church on immigration and how it pertains to immigration reform.

This series is provided by the diocese of Arlington and includes statements on the issue from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops on such topics as our need to affirm the dignity of all persons, the responsibility to promote our national security and the Gospel call to “welcome the stranger in our midst”.

After each week’s area of interest, we will offer some additional information from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) on the selected topic. In the interests of space, and respectful of your time, we have included only excerpts. However, we encourage you to follow the links that will be provided over the next eight weeks, to read the entire statements/documents.

As a follow up to my statement two weeks ago on recent events in the country that represent a new level of racism, I refer you to the recent letter from the leaders of the National Cathedral in Washington DC. It is well done and to the point. I give thanks for these Christian leaders speaking out.

I also give thanks to the Archbishop Lori, Archbishop Wilton Gregory, and the auxiliary bishop of Baltimore for speaking out to defend the citizens of their city. To view the letter, please go to: <https://cathedral.org/have-we-no-decency-a-response-to-president-trump.html>.

Sincerely,

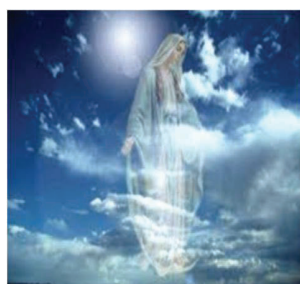

Fr. John O’Connor, O.F.M.

Please Pray For All those who are sick: Gary Ward; Leo Escanilla; Imelda Pine; Jim Stevens; Betty Cormier; Dan Burrell; Richard L. Laffman; Sue Long; David Back; Noah Hammond; Laurie Coligan; Aaron Childs; and Patricia Bennick.

And for those recently deceased: Barbara Lussenden (Mother of Lois Reidy); Harry Logel; and Barbara Bergesen (wife of Bradley Bergesen).

Please pray for the following who are serving abroad in harm’s way: James O’Sullivan; Tyler Jones; Drew; and Leo N. Company.

Thursday, August 15th is the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (a Holy Day of Obligation). Masses will be at:
August 14th—7:30 p.m. (Vigil)
August 15th—6:30 a.m.
8:45 a.m.
7:30 p.m.

Our annual Labor Day Picnic will be held on Monday, September 2nd at Locust Shade Park from 11:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. with a prayer service at 12:00 p.m. Hamburgers, hot dogs and drinks will be provided. A sign-up poster for family food donations will be available in the vestibule on the weekends of August 18th and 25th. Please plan to join us for our family day of fun and good food. The picnic will be held rain or shine. If it must be cancelled due to extreme conditions, the cancellation will be posted on the parish website (www.stfrancis.org).

Stop thinking so hard about everything. Stop overanalyzing. Just go. Just do. If it feels right, go with the flow. If it feels wrong do not think about it anymore and walk away! Please email Kathy Walker at kwalker@stfrancis.org to see how Stephen Ministry can help in your time of indecision.

Gift Card Scams

There's a new spin on gift card scams. This time, scammers are pretending to be a pastor, rabbi, priest, imam, or bishop. They're asking worshipers for gift card contributions for a worthy cause. Appeals are often made by email, texts, or phone calls.

The bogus emails often include the name of the local pastor and a legitimate looking email address. But a closer look should raise some red flags. For example, the email address isn't the one normally used by the church, and the service provider is different, too. The message may begin with a simple "Hi," but doesn't include a recipients' name.

The imposter asks you to buy a popular gift card — frequently, iTunes, Google Play, or Amazon — and then asks for the gift card number and PIN on the back of the card. Those numbers let the scammer immediately get the money you loaded onto the card. And once that's done, the scammer and your money are gone, usually without a trace.

If you or someone you know paid a scammer with a gift card, report it as soon as possible. Call the card company and tell them the gift card was used in a scam. See popular contact below. Then, tell the FTC about it at ftc.gov/complaint.
