Immigration and the Catholic Response

Fears about Immigration

During his 2015 visit to Washington and in his address to bishops, Pope Francis highlighted the value that immigrants bring to our society: "Perhaps you will be challenged by their diversity, but know that they also possess resources to be shared. So do not be afraid to welcome them. Offer the warmth of Christ and you will unlock the mystery of their heart. I am certain that, as so often in the past, these people will enrich America and its church." While it is true that a small minority of immigrants become involved in criminal activity, the vast majority are honest and hardworking.

From the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops:

In 2004, the Catholic bishops of the United States committed to immigration reform as a priority of the U.S. Catholic Church, and to creating a culture of welcome in which all migrants are treated with respect and dignity. A diverse group of Catholic organizations with national networks joined the U.S. Catholic bishops' Justice for Immigrants Campaign (JFI) in an effort to unite and mobilize a growing network of Catholic institutions, individuals, and other persons of goodwill in support of immigration reform.

<https://justiceforimmigrants.org/>

Following is an excerpt from their website on the issue of crime among immigrants.

Recently published research has shown that immigrant communities do not increase the crime rate and that immigrants actually commit fewer crimes than native born Americans.

Immigrants are Less Likely to be Criminals Than the Native-Born

Between 1990 and 2013, the foreign-born share of the U.S. population grew from 7.9 percent to 13.1 percent and the number of unauthorized immigrants more than tripled from 3.5 million to 11.2 million.

During the same period, FBI data indicate that the violent crime rate declined 48 percent—which included falling rates of aggravated assault, robbery, rape, and murder. Likewise, the property crime rate fell 41 percent, including declining rates of motor vehicle theft, larceny/robbery, and burglary.

Immigrants are Less Likely Than the Native-Born to Engage in Criminal Behavior

...immigrants are less likely than the native-born to engage in either violent or nonviolent "antisocial" behaviors; that immigrants are less likely than the native-born to be repeat offenders among "high risk" adolescents; and that immigrant youth who were students in U.S. middle and high schools in the mid-1990s and are now young adults have among the lowest delinquency rates of all young people.

People are sent into our lives to teach us things that we need to learn about ourselves. Formation for Stephen Ministry is starting soon. Come learn a lot about yourself and how you can help others! Please email Kathy Walker at kwalker@stfrncis.org for information.

How does Freedom Sunday work? It's simple.

- 1 See the problem of slavery
Slavery still exists. With more than 40 million slaves in the world today, it's worse than ever.

Your church will learn what it looks like to "seek justice and defend the oppressed" in our world.

Please do not drop the cartridges in the Catch-All Slot.
(No laser cartridges.)

Are You New to the Parish??? Welcome!!

Registration forms are available on the tables in the vestibule, from the Parish Office or from the parish website www.stfrncis.org.

There is a book located in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel next to the Tabernacle for you to write your own prayers of petition. During the Prayer of the Faithful during weekend liturgies, an intercession will call to mind those prayers in a general way. In this manner, the public prayer of the church is bound to the many prayers of the faithful who live in the body of Christ!
