“Advent invites us to a commitment to vigilance, looking beyond ourselves, expanding our mind and heart in order to open ourselves up to the needs of people, of brothers and sisters, and to the desire for a new world.”

— Pope Francis

Fourth Sunday of ADVENT Peace

Dear Parishioners,

In a few days we will celebrate Christmas. This is normally a time of the year when families and friends gather in a spirit of joy and hope. To be able to celebrate this year as we have in the past, will be difficult, if not impossible.

This Christmas season we face one of the most challenging crisis of modern times, a pandemic that has made millions ill and taken the lives of thousands of our fellow human beings.

And so our natural response may be to ask how can one speak of joy and hope in the midst of so much suffering, so much isolation, so much anxiety and fear.

But it is the very Christmas message that gives us hope. Jesus came into a world where there was pain and suffering. God became one of us, took on our human form. In doing so Jesus experienced the joyful moments of life but also the suffering that is part of our human state. In the end He gave His life for us on the Cross.

He walked the journey that we walk, and in doing so He gave us all something to believe in and to have hope in. His life reminds us that suffering and even death is not the final word. The Gospel of Christmas day proclaims to us “what came to be through him was life, and this life was the light of the human race, the light that shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.”

Jesus continues to walk this journey with us, even now. He is the light that gives us direction.

In the midst of this most difficult moment in our history, let the Light of Christ be our light, let the joy and the hope of the Christmas message, give us the courage and strength to believe that things can get better and will get better.

Finally, this Christmas let us give thanks for all those doctors, nurses, first responders, those in service work, all who are making incredible sacrifices, and taking great risks, to heal and help us through this moment.

Please know that you are in the my thoughts and prayers, and the thoughts and prayers of my fellow friars.

May the Lord Jesus bless you and your loved ones this Christmas day.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. John O’Connor, O.F.M.

Christmas, 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Last Christmas, we never could have imagined that in just a couple months, our lives and our world would be forever changed by a global pandemic. In faith and love, we have striven to persevere through these difficulties. This year we have also been shaken once again by racial tensions in our nation. With trust in God, we continue to seek the transformation of our society, that it might more fully reflect God's Kingdom. Now, the celebration of Our Lord's birth renews us in the hope and peace that comes from him alone.

When we seek models of encouragement, especially in times of trial, we need look no further than the Holy Family. Mary and Joseph traveled a long and dangerous road to keep Jesus safe. They experienced exhaustion, and yet they remained strong in faith and trusted in God's plan for them.

As we celebrate this sacred season of Christmas, may we imitate Mary and Joseph and celebrate with reverence and joy the majesty and wonder of Christmas: "the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us" (Jn 1:14). By taking on human flesh, he joined us in our earthly existence. Christ endured the pain, disappointment and struggle of this life but also sanctified those moments. This Christmas, may we become more fully a dwelling place of the Word by entrusting our challenges, crosses, and very lives to his infinite love and divine mercy. In him, we will find the strength and grace we need.

In this Christmas season, God invites us, through the words of St. Paul, to "let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body" (Col 3:15). May we be instruments of his peace and compassion in a world that desperately needs the witness of our faith and unity. Let us encourage and support one another in faith with a renewed commitment to serve our brothers and sisters in most need, striving daily to imitate Christ.

It is my hope and prayer that Our Lord and Savior will bless you and your family with the peace that only he can give. May this precious gift be yours throughout the Christmas season and always.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington
