Keep those used printer cartridges coming!

Faith Formation has been helping to be good stewards of our earth by recycling. With your contribution of used ink cartridges, we can help care for the earth and it is so easy to do.

Please do not drop the cartridges in the Catch-All Slot.
(No laser cartridges.)

You can drop the cartridges off in the basket on the table in the vestibule or stop by the Faith Formation Office.

Thank you for your continued support!

CAR RAFFLE 2021

Car raffle tickets have been mailed to each family. Once again we are participating with All Saints Catholic Church. One $5.00 ticket offers a more generous venture than purchasing a vehicle on our own and each purchaser has a chance to win five cars plus $20,000 in cash drawings! This makes "selling" at work or to family and friends more like an opportunity—just show them the ticket—it will sell itself! Please visit our website (www.stfrncis.org) to view the five 2021 vehicles.

Any questions, please contact Chanel Marquis at 703-221-4044, ext. 222 or cmarquis@stfrncis.org.

Please take note—All tickets (used or unused and money) can be mailed back directly to ALL SAINTS CATHOLIC CHURCH; turned into the Parish Office; placed in the collection basket; or the Catch-All Slot. St. Francis will STILL receive the normal proceeds from the Raffle. This is our Parish's largest fundraiser and we thank you in advance for your support.

A fresh perspective on the Sunday Readings HIS WORD TODAY

By Rev. William J. Reilly

"So they took away the stone. And Jesus raised his eyes and said, 'Father I thank you for hearing me. I know that you always hear me but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me.' And when he had said this, he cried out in a loud voice, 'Lazarus come out.'"

The bond of Jesus and the family of Martha, Mary and Lazarus was special. The sisters offered the gift of friendship, hospitality, with an eagerness to listen to Jesus. The death of their brother prompted Jesus' visit and tears. Jesus restored his friend's life.

The same miracle of Jesus takes place when we seek His forgiveness, express our own sorrow and are willing to forgive others. Forgiveness is a great power we all possess, but sometimes are slow or hesitate to use it. As with Lazarus, forgiveness produces new life in us and for others. As we continue our Lenten journey may I ask for forgiveness and be ready to forgive someone else.

2021 Bishop's Lenten Appeal Encourage One Another by Word and Deed

Currently our parish has reached 79% of our goal for the Bishop's Lenten Appeal (BLA). We are very grateful to those who have already supported this year's appeal.

We know that there are families who have not yet made a pledge to the BLA and we are asking for support from every parish household.

You may go online to make a donation at: www.arlingtondiocese.org or scan the QR code below:

The BLA funds many programs, services and ministries that serve people in need and furthers the Gospel mission of Jesus Christ in our diocese. Let us join together to do the Lord's work—works that touch the lives and souls of thousands of people. Please reflect on your blessings and consider joining in support of the BLA. Every pledge is important! Thank you!

Why You Should Go to Confession

A Lot of people celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation during Lent. You should too! Why? Here are the benefits.

A Renewed Heart. Through the forgiveness of God and the ministry of the Church, a renewed heart is created in you, the Spirit is again given so that you can live a life reconciled to God, to the community, to family and friends, and to yourself. In being forgiven by God because you asked, you can more deeply learn and understand what it means to forgive others as you have been forgiven. And those are the moments in which you catch glimpses of the beauty of God.

Learning humility. Why go to Confession? It is a question that is posed in many ways. Why go to a priest to tell one's sins and not do so directly to God, who knows and understands us much better than any priest? Why speak of my sins and secrets, especially those of which I am ashamed, to someone who is a sinner like me, and who perhaps will assess my experience in a completely different way than I do, or doesn't understand it at all?

If you consider the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) paragraph 1846, it is a fair summation to think of sin as a love that falls back on itself, responding to love with indifference and rejection. Such ingratitude has consequences in the one who lives in such a way, but also ripples outward to friends, family, and the larger community. People do not think of themselves as self-absorbed, failing to respond to love, ungrateful, and indifferent. But we all have moments of those things. It is humbling to realize it. And even more humbling to say it aloud to another person. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is a place where you can humble yourself before God and receive forgiveness and grace. That encounter with grace begins in the examination of conscience done honestly. That can be humbling.

To Experience Mercy and Forgiveness. People experience not just relief at the end of a truly contrite confession, they experience joy. I think the joy stems from feeling loved in a new way by God, knowing that the forgiveness of God reaches me through the priest who gives it to me in His Name. It is not the transitory sense of relief of the one who has "emptied the bag of sins" that has been carried around, but the peace of feeling peace "within" oneself, touched in the heart by a love that comes from above and transforms us.

Experiencing Mercy and Forgiveness in the signs and language of our human condition. Are there forms of Penance outside the Sacrament of Reconciliation? Yes, for venial sins. Take a look at CCC 1434 and following. So why confess to a priest? Consider this: in sending his Son, God shows He wants a direct contact that wades through the experience and language of our human condition. Jesus came to us so that we could be called to Him; so we would freely respond with humility and faith to him who pardons us human words and gestures. The words of absolution spoken by the priest communicates the interior certainty of having been truly forgiven and received by the Father because Christ entrusted the ministry to the Church (cf. Matthew 18:17 and John 20:22-23). Confessing in the secret of one's heart is into a milieu of uncertainties and ambiguities. In the Sacrament of Reconciliation it is with certainty that you hear the words:

God, the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of his Son has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son.

There is a human voice to say and assure you that you are forgiven and made new in the Spirit given.

To encounter the compassion of God. Innumerable episodes in the life of Jesus demonstrate the compassion and empathy of God for us: the Samaritan woman, healing of the paralytic and lepers, and tears in the face of the death of His friend Lazarus. Each one of us lives with our own weakness, goes through sickness, draws near to death, is aware of the challenge of the questions that all this poses to the heart. We are a people in need of compassion. Confession is the encounter with divine compassion. The Sacrament is an effective sign of grace and endless mercy from the One who knows our human condition.

To come Home. The Sacrament itself is a "return home." In becoming aware of your faults, you realize you are in exile, far from home. Sin fractures and breaks relationships with God, perhaps even rejects divine love. It is the source of our exile from our own heart. It is then that we need to remember the home that which waits for us. Without this memory we won't have the necessary confidence and the hope to decide to return to God. With the humility of the one who knows he is not worthy of being called "daughter" or "son," we can decide to return home, and there to realize the experience of the "Prodigal Son" when he realized that his father was ever and always on the outlook for his return: "While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him" (Luke 15:20).

And so it is with the Sacrament of Reconciliation – and why you should celebrate this wonderful moment of God's grace and mercy.

The season of Lent is a great time to be renewed and reconciled. The sacrament of Reconciliation will be available every Wednesday evening (February 24th—March 31st) from 7:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. There are also opportunities on Saturdays from 3:30 p.m.—4:30 p.m.

(No Confessions will be heard on Holy Saturday)

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus replied, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds". John 12: 23-24

Give us New Life, O Lord.

My plan for Lent, one week at a time...

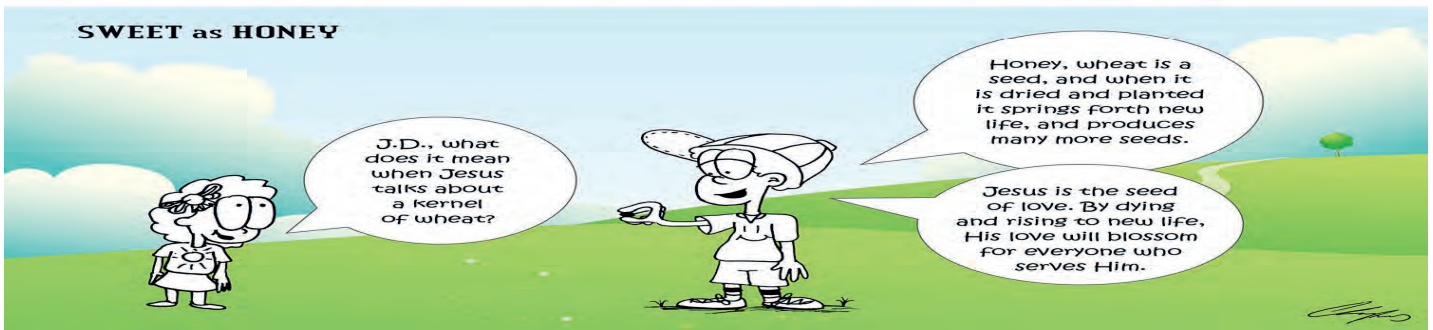

This week I will pray for _____

This week I will give up/do without _____

This week I will do this act of love/good deed _____
(Sundays optional)

Lent is almost over - next Sunday is Palm Sunday and the beginning of Holy Week.
